For every document Offeror submits in response to or with regard to this solicitation or request, Offeror must separately mark with the words "TRADE SECRET" every page, or portion thereof, that Offeror contends contains a trade secret as

If only portions of a page are subject to some protection, do not mark the entire page. By submitting a response to this solicitation or request, Offeror (1) agrees to the public disclosure of every page of every document regarding this solicitation or request that was submitted at any time prior to entering into a contract (including, but not limited to, documents contained in a response, documents submitted to clarify a response, and documents submitted during negotiations), unless the page is conspicuously marked "TRADE SECRET" or "CONFIDENTIAL" or "PROTECTED", (2) agrees that any information not marked, as required by these bidding instructions, as a "Trade Secret" is not a trade secret as defined by the Trade Secrets Act, and (3) agrees that, notwithstanding any claims or markings otherwise, any prices, commissions, discounts, or other financial figures used to determine the award, as well as the final contract amount, are subject to public disclosure. In determining whether to release documents, the State will detrimentally rely on Offeror's marking of documents, as required by these bidding instructions, as being either "Confidential" or "Trade Secret" or "PROTECTED". By submitting a response, Offeror agrees to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the State of South Carolina, its officers and employees, from every claim, demand, loss, expense, cost, damage or injury, including attorney's fees, arising out of or resulting from the State withholding information that Offeror marked as "confidential" or "trade secret" or "PROTECTED". INDEMNIFICATION - THIRD PARTY CLAIMS (NOV 2011)

Notwithstanding any limitation in this agreement, and to the fullest extent permitted by law, Contractor shall defend and hold harmless Indemnitees for and against any and all suits or claims of any character (and all related damages, settlement payments, attorneys' fees, costs, expenses, losses or liabilities) by a third party which are attributable to bodily injury, sickness, disease or death, or to injury to or destruction of tangible property arising out of or in connection with the goods or services acquired hereunder or caused in whole or in part by any act or omission of contractor, its subcontractors, their employees, workmen, servants, agents, or anyone directly or indirectly employed by them or anyone for whose acts any of them may be liable, regardless of whether or not caused in part by an Indemnitee, and whether or not such claims are made by a third party or an Indemnitee; however, if an Indemnitee's negligent act or omission is subsequently determined to be the sole proximate cause of a suit or claim, the Indemnitee shall not be entitled to indemnification hereunder. Contractor shall be given timely written notice of any suit or claim. Contractor's obligations hereunder are in no way limited by any protection afforded under workers' compensation acts, disability benefits acts, or other employee benefit acts. This clause shall not negate, abridge, or reduce any other rights or obligations of indemnity which would otherwise exist. The obligations of this paragraph shall survive termination, cancellation, or expiration of the parties' agreement. This provision shall be construed fairly and reasonably, neither strongly for nor against either party, and without regard to any clause regarding insurance. As used in this clause, "Indemnitees" means the State of South Carolina, its instrumentalities, agencies, departments, boards, political subdivisions and all their respective officers, agents and employees.

All data, material and documentation either prepared for the state pursuant to this contract shall belong exclusively to the State.

PRICE ADJUSTMENTS (JAN 2006)

(1) Method of Adjustment. Any adjustment in the contract price made pursuant to a clause in this contract shall be consistent with this Contract and shall be arrived at through whichever one of the following ways is the most valid approximation of the actual cost to the Contractor (including profit, if otherwise allowed):

(a) by agreement on a fixed price adjustment before commencement of the pertinent performance or as soon thereafter as practicable;

(b) by unit prices specified in the Contract or subsequently agreed upon;

(c) by the costs attributable to the event or situation covered by the relevant clause, including profit if otherwise allowed, all as specified in the Contract; or subsequently agreed upon;

(d) in such other manner as the parties may mutually agree; or,

(e) in the absence of agreement by the parties, through a unilateral initial written determination by the Procurement Officer of the costs attributable to the event or situation covered by the clause, including profit if otherwise allowed, all as computed by the Procurement Officer in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, subject to the provisions of Title 11, Chapter 35, Article 17 of the S.C. Code of Laws.

(2) Submission of Price or Cost Data. Upon request of the Procurement Officer, the contractor shall provide reasonably available factual information to substantiate that the price or cost offered, for any price adjustments is reasonable, consistent with the provisions of Section 11-35-1830.

RELATIONSHIP OF THE PARTIES (JAN 2006)

Neither party is an employee, agent, partner, or joint venturer of the other. Neither party has the right or ability to bind the other to any agreement with a third party or to incur any obligation or liability on behalf of the other party.

VII. TERMS AND CONDITIONS – C. DHEC’S SPECIAL CLAUSES

PREVENTING AND REPORTING FRAUD, WASTE AND ABUSE (DHEC 2008)

- a. Federal and state laws make it unlawful to submit false claims to the government for payment; provide for civil, criminal and administrative penalties; and protect individuals, including government employees, who make good faith reports of suspected violations.
- b. SCDHEC has established procedures and policies concerning the prevention and reporting of fraud, waste and abuse (FWA) in agency-funded programs, including but not limited to those funded by federal grants such as Medicaid. No agency employee, agent, or contractor shall direct, participate in, approve, or tolerate any violation of federal or state laws regarding FWA in government programs. Any employee, agent, or contractor of SCDHEC who submits a false claim in violation of federal or state laws will be reported to appropriate authorities.
- c. The federal False Claims Act provides civil penalties for submitting false claims or statements to a federally funded program and authorizes the U. S. Attorney General to enforce this law. Citizens may bring an action on behalf of the government within six years of submittal of the false claim, and may receive part of any damages. An individual who in good faith reports information about false claims submitted by others is protected by law from retaliation for making the report (“whistleblower” protection.) Federal law also allows certain agencies, including the Department of Health and Human Services, to hold administrative hearings to penalize persons for false or fraudulent claims.
- d. Under State law, persons may be criminally prosecuted for false claims made to an insurer, HMO or any person, including state government, providing benefits for health care. Medicaid fraud statutes allow criminal prosecution of health care providers and Medicaid applicants or recipients who knowingly make false statements to the Medicaid Program, or conceal or fail to disclose material facts affecting entitlement to Medicaid reimbursement, payment, or benefits. Health care providers may also be liable for civil and administrative penalties and sanctions for Medicaid fraud. The State Attorney General has authority to prosecute persons for insurance fraud who make false statements and misrepresentations in order to obtain an undeserved economic benefit or to deny someone a benefit in connection with any insurance transaction. The State Computer Crimes Act authorizes criminal penalties for persons who use a computer to devise or execute any fraud scheme or to obtain money or services by false representations.
- e. Anyone who becomes aware of the existence or apparent existence of FWA in agency funded programs is encouraged to report such matters by writing to the Office of Internal Audits, SCDHEC, 2600 Bull Street, Columbia, South Carolina 29201; or by calling the Agency Fraud, Waste and Abuse Hotline at 803-0896-0650 or toll-free at 1-866-206-5202. Reports will be handled confidentially.
- f. The Contractor is required to inform contractor’s employees of the existence of SCDHEC’s policy prohibiting FWA and the procedures for reporting FWA to the agency.
